Dear Ann,

We haven't known each other very long, but I think I can consider you one of my dearest friends. Remember all the fun we've had together; the lipstick and snowball fights with my dad; the first time you and Bill really got together (I was with Lee) and the pizza we got (horrible); my birthday party; the clothes we gave each other; and the arguments we've had? I'll be back next May, I hope, because I'm going to be in Kitty's wedding (remember her "come-as-you-are" party at 6:30 A.M.), but I still want you to come down to Petersburg this August. I really hope that you get the best of everything in life and as Nate says, "I'll see you on Broadway: Be good now and don't forget to write."

Love you,

Bunny

P.S. I said I love you, remember
one more thing please,
I wrote this on Thursday.

Foreword

The ringmaster blows his whistle, the band strikes up a march, and the parade starts. The circus is in town! Under the big top the crowd looks on with amazement as the trapeze artists soar through the air in daring maneuvers. They laugh at the clowns frolicking about. They thrill as the lion trainer puts the big cats through their paces. But the most important part of the circus is what the crowd doesn't see. They very often don't realize all the hard work behind each performer's act. They forget about the many things that must be done before a show can open; unloading the trains, setting up the big top, and preparing the many acts before the final show.

So it is in school. We go from day to day, class to class, little realizing all the work that must be done to make each day new and interesting. We want to see our teams win and we cheer them on, but do we think about all the practice and time that goes into making a team good? We go to dances and plays to have a good time, but what about the months of preparation and hard work that make the successes?

In this year's Oak we have tried to bring out this similarity between school and circus. We have tried to show that there must be hard work in back of everything in order to make it worthwhile, but that there is fun in work.

AIRPLANE VIEW OF SCHOOL

LIFE ON THE HILL

Parents and students at School and College Night; U.D.'s gym —its pride and joy; Mr. Mays, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. C. Thompson entering marks on report cards; the Purple and Gold Speaking Contest with Eleanor Duguid at the mike; relaxing on the athletic field at lunch time; flags massed in the front hall in the Freedom Foundation exhibit; evidence that this was one of the worst winters; Mr. Brooke and Mr. H. Thompson choose their lunch.

LIFE ON THE HILL

A bust of Lincoln, a gift to the school by Mr. Antoine Sweizer; "Back to School Night" with the parents looking all too happy; enjoying the results of their own cooking; a Science Department luncheon for some members of the Mothers' Discussion Group given in the physics laboratory; Miss Williams giving instruction in hockey to some of the girls; our new Industrial Arts building; Andy Arcari entertains in assembly; another hard day over, students leave the school.

THE COURSES WE TAKE

Doing some delicate measuring in physics lab.

Mr. Stevens' second period chemistry class performing an experiment.

Preparation for college is offered in two courses: the Academic and the Scientific. The Academic Course prepares for law, the ministry, teaching, social service, library work, etc.; the Scientific Course prepares for medicine, engineering, nursing, laboratory technique, dietetics, architecture, dentistry, etc. These are the only curricula that prepare directly for college. Pupils with high scholastic ability and a genuine interest in books are advised to select one of the two College Preparatory Curricula.

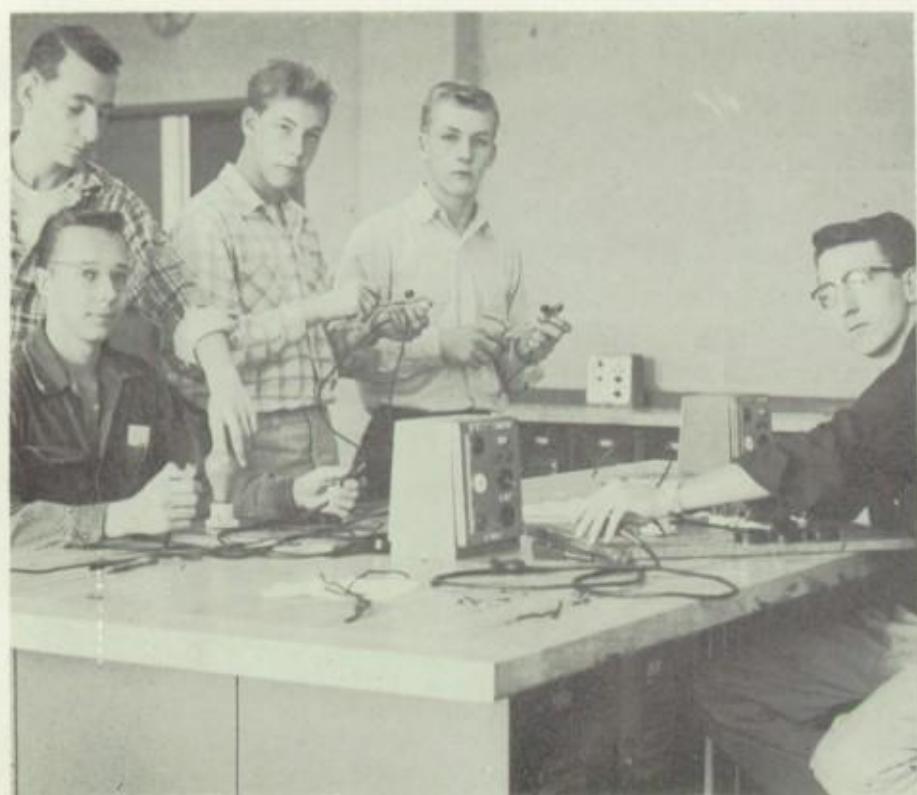

James Swab demonstrates a theorem in geometry.

Mr. Noel's second period English hard at work.

THE COURSES WE TAKE

Stanko, Hofman, Keating, Gosser, and DeLuca, busy in Electrical Shop.

A representative of Revlon talks to the Distributive Education class.

The Arts and Crafts Curriculum is not a college preparatory course. It is designed for the student who is developing an interest in a particular vocation. The fields of concentration offered are Agriculture, Art, Home Economics, Metal and Wood Skills, and Music.

The Business Preparation Curriculum prepares the student for a position in the business world. In the eleventh and twelfth grades the course becomes specialized and has four divisions: Accounting, General Business, Salesmanship, and Stenographic. Seniors in the Business course may elect Distributive Education.

William Brown, Wayne Conrad, Dick Rogers, and Ken Macey at the State Fair.

Typing class concentrating on a speed test.

Carol Salerno and Joan Rogers get out the morning sheet.

WE LEAD A BUSY LIFE

Drawing for magazine contest; foreign students from the area visit the campus; archery class in action:

Christmas decorations go up; fun at the Sophomore party; evidently something of interest in assembly.

WE LEAD A BUSY LIFE

The Star-Dusters in the All-School Show; boys' cooking seems to be an enjoyable subject; the junior dance in a gaily decorated gym; Howard Lipsky encourages Chief "Heavy"; a funny skit at a pep rally; Mr. Tyson celebrates a birthday.

THE CLOTHES WE WEAR

1. Joe Trimble and Franne Farrell model casual wear.
2. All set for the big night—Arlene Belafonte and Art Saxon show us their formal wear.
3. Another day of school for Nick Bozzi and Marie Miller.

4. Art Saxon and Nikki Irvin are all dressed up for a party.
5. A day at the beach with Dick Struck and Joanne Patterson.
6. Twin sweaters are worn by steadies, Bob DeStefano and Sandy Reagoso.

SUPERINTENDENT

MR. JOHN H. TYSON

In November the Upper Darby School Family prepared and dedicated a commemorative book to our Superintendent, John H. Tyson

"Who as teacher, principal, and superintendent has directed their course through many years.

"Who thinks and plans for the community and its children.

"Who by faith in his school family, gains their loyal support.

"Who, through his tireless devotion to the cause of education, may be identified as Mr. Upper Darby himself."

The class of 1956 salutes you, Mr. Tyson.

Mr. Tyson, receiving a testimonial booklet from Miss Roffe at teachers' institute.

PRINCIPAL

DR. JAMES E. NANCARROW

Dr. James E. Nancarrow stepped into the spotlight of the first ring in 1943 as principal of the Upper Darby Senior High School. Since then he has stayed right in the center of things. His presence is always noted at all school functions; he is one of the most loyal rooters for all the teams; and he is especially concerned with the general welfare of the students in the school.

The spotlight of the second ring shines on Dr. Nancarrow for community service. In 1954 he was presented with the Optimists' Award.

In the third ring the spotlight shines equally as brightly, for Dr. Nancarrow holds many positions on the state and national level. He presides as president of the Pennsylvania Branch of the National Association of Secondary School Principals and is president of the Principals' Department of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association. In addition he represents the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools on the College Entrance Examination Board, and holds membership in the Head Masters' Association.

Friend and counselor, Dr. Nancarrow gives of his time and energy to the betterment of Upper Darby.

Dr. Nancarrow speaks at the dedication of our athletic field.

President Dilworth speaks at the dedication of the new athletic field.

The members of the Board of Education truly deserve applause for continued efforts in making the citizens of Upper Darby Township proud of their schools.

Included in the Board's program are regular monthly meetings, led by the president, Dr. George G. Dilworth, who, because of his contributions in the past, was re-elected in 1955 for a fifteenth term. At the present time, much endeavor is being placed upon a project for the construction of a new junior high school, the final step in fulfilling the need caused by a rapid growth in population. Its completion, planned for the year 1957, will by no means bring an end to the work of the Board members, who are constantly seeking new areas for improvement.

CADET TEACHERS

Miss Betty Miadies helps a student in sewing class.

Learning by teaching, cadets from several nearby colleges became acquainted with the routine at Upper Darby. After a period of observation, they took their places before classes, assisting both students and teachers. Their work was not limited to the classroom, for they were often seen performing duties in such places as study halls and the attendance office.

It cannot be denied that the cadet teachers have contributed much to the school life with their friendliness and profitable instruction.

Mrs. Margaret Boyd

Students were not the only ones who worked hard at their desks all day. Our efficient secretarial staff came earlier and stayed later than most students. The many duties of the different offices kept the secretaries busy. Whether working at a mimeographing machine, typing a letter, filing a report card, sorting mail, or taking the telephone messages, the secretaries were an essential part of the smooth functioning of the school.

The Acorn staff, under the guidance of Mrs. Anne Slick, advisor, and Bill Dixon, editor, was on the job all the time. They worked many long hours to put out a top-notch paper, one that has always been a winner in press competition.

Every Friday students eagerly awaited their copies of the Acorn. They especially enjoyed the antics of Bucksy, the comic strip created by Joe Trimble, art editor.

This year, as always, the editors and staff worked hand-in-hand to produce an accurate record of events at Upper Darby High.

The Executive Committee of Student Council met every other Thursday morning in Room 63 to determine council policy. Most of Council's business is originated in executive committee and discussed there before being brought up in Council for action. The executive committee is composed of officers of Council, the chairmen of the standing committees, and the advisors. It can be compared with the board of directors of a company inasmuch as its main purpose is to direct Council.

LEADERS' GROUP

The Leaders' Group, under the direction of faculty advisor Mr. Andersen, with the capable assistance of Douglas Leathem and Nancy Alderfer, stressed scholarship, leadership, service and character as its qualifications for membership. This year, applications for membership not only consisted of a letter stating the reason for wanting admittance into the group but also a form which was filled out by the applicant and admission was granted if the required qualifications were held.

The objects of the 1956 Leaders were to help Mr. Andersen during study periods, to assist at pep rallies and to exert beneficial aid to their fellow classmates.

The trip to Washington was one of their outstanding events of the year.

SCOTT'S HI-Q

Upper Darby competing against Radnor and Ridley Park in the third round of Scott's Hi-Q.

Quizmaster Bob Johnson asks a puzzler of Marvin Katz, Phyllis Pennypacker, Dick Kaplan, and Martha Noel.

The members of Upper Darby's Scott's Hi-Q team, using brain power as their defense, put their heads together in an effort to win points for the school. The team members, who were Dick Kaplan, Marvin Katz, Martha Noel, and Phyllis Pennypacker, managed to gain a total of seventy-six points in three rounds, thus giving Upper Darby a tie for the fifth place out of twenty-one.

Sponsored by Mr. Paul Coffey, the team was tied for first place after the completion of the first round. Unfortunately, Upper Darby was unable to hold the top honors, which were given to the three highest schools—Swarthmore, Nether Providence, and Springfield. Nevertheless, Upper Darby can be proud of having students capable of answering so many of the seemingly "impossible" questions.

possible without able leadership, and U.D.'s production was blessed with that of Mr. Robert Doane and Mr. William Keller.

No one will ever forget the many laughs given us by the clowns who were the master and mistresses of ceremonies in Ain't Misbehavin'. The Can-Can dancers really peped us up (although we wondered if their shoes were going to sail into the audience) and the hilarious blind antics of the horses helped make the show a famous production. The precision march of the Wooden Soldiers and the rag doll movements of the Raggedy Ann and Andys lent the festive touch to the evening.

According to Mr. Robert A. Doane, director, this year's band was one of the finest ever. Though there were sour notes in rehearsals, the band always came through for their many concerts and assembly programs. Outstanding among the many programs they played were the Lions' Club Show, the opening of Schoolmen's Week at the University of Pennsylvania, and the Mendenhall Memorial Concert. They combined with the Choral Club to present the annual Christmas concert. They also played at Lansdowne-Aldan High School and at our Junior High.

The Royals' marching band, under the direction of Mr. Robert A. Doane, had a very full schedule this year. Three mornings a week they practiced their football halftime drills with the majorettes and color guard. At the games, when spirits were low, the familiar strains of "Rock Around the Clock" and "When the Saints Go Marchin' In" brought the spectators to life.

The band's work didn't end with the football season. They combined with the orchestra to play at many concerts and assemblies. They also participated in various parades throughout the year.

CHORAL CLUB

This year the Choral Club, under the direction of Dr. Clyde R. Dengler, had an unusually busy season, presenting five concerts. At Christmas time they presented a program with the band, and at Easter they sang "The Seven Last Words," a cantata by Du Bois. In the spring the chorus presented a musical program for the Upper Darby Forum, appeared in the Lions' Club Show, and sang at the Rotary International Convention, which was held in Philadelphia.

On February 4, the Choral Club held its annual party, the Steel Pier Frolic. The officers who planned this activity were Arthur Saxon, president; Arlene Goldberg, secretary; William Meade, treasurer. The accompanist for the Choral Club was David Renner.

THE MAY QUEEN AND HER COURT

THE 1956 MAY QUEEN, LOIS LENHARD.

May Day, with all its pageantry and spirit, was a day never to be forgotten by everyone at Upper Darby. Excitement mounted from the day of nominations for May Queen until the last event of May Day, when the winning color team was known.

This year, nominations for the honor of May Queen followed a new procedure. Sixty-seven girls were nominated in homerooms and screened by the senior executive committee. Then a final list of twenty-four girls was presented to the senior class in a traditional assembly. Each nominator gave a prepared speech which stressed the high points of the candidate's qualifications, including attractiveness, character, leadership, scholarship, service, and all-around personality.

May Day officially began when last year's Queen, Judy Wells, placed the crown on the head of the new Queen, Lois Lenhard. A special group of sophomore girls honored the Queen and her court with a Maypole dance while junior girls followed with a novelty dance. Then the entire student body executed the drill with almost perfect precision.

Afterwards, Loey presented the banner to the captains of the winning team.

During the rest of the afternoon both teams struggled to win the various contests. Relay races, tugs-of-war, a pie-eating contest, and softball games ended a glorious May Day.

The girl who is following in her sister's footsteps but using her own power is Lois Lenhard, who was chosen to reign over the annual May Day exercises as 1956 queen. Loey was elected for her beauty, athletic ability, character, honor, and service. Loey, a three varsity letter winner, has been active in Thespians, Hi-Y, Class Committees, All School Show Production, Leaders' Group, and the A. A. Council.

The girls in the May Queen's Court were elected also for their attractiveness, friendliness, honor, and service. Marilyn has served in many ways giving much of her time to Hi-Y, where she is vice-president, and to the cheerleading squad. Arlene has worked in Thespians, having the lead in our class plays, and in A Cappella as a soloist. Ann has been our class secretary for three years and has helped to make our swimming team champions. Franne, another one of our peppy cheerleaders, has served as a captain of the squad and worked on all of our class committees. Most of Beth's time has been devoted to the Acorn, where she is features editor, but she has also found time to work as secretary of Hi-Y. Lois, who should be named as the "sweetest" girl in our class, worked on council and as an officer in several clubs. Marie has given her talents to the typing staff, serving as president this year, and to numerous class committees. Ivy has done much hard work as president of Hi-Y, and was also elected as All School Show Queen for her sweet voice. Acclaimed "most popular," Doris has worked as a cheerleading captain and as a member of the OAK staff this year. Brenda served two years on Student Council, acting as secretary this year and is an active member of the Thespian Society. These girls have all done much to make Upper Darby a wonderful school and are highly deserving of this honor.

Right in the middle ring, the Class of '56 presented The Would-be Gentleman on November 11 and 12. Monsieur Jourdain, who is swindled out of his fortune by a scheming count, was played by Marvin Katz. The entire play revolved around Jourdain's attempts to become a "Person of Nobility." So blinded was he in this steadfast desire that he was unable to discern all laughable situations which went on behind his back. The success of the play can be attributed to the hard work of cast and crew, and the able leadership of Miss Frieda E. Reed, director and Miss Maizie G. Weil, technical director.

The last scene of the play where everyone is finally paired off to Madame Jourdain's satisfaction. Bill Hoffner, Arlene Belefonte, Roberta Weiss, Marvin Katz, Martha Noel, Dick Mazza, Jack McCloskey, and Duane Struth.

"THE WOULD-BE GENTLEMAN"

"Ah, what beauty," says Marvin Katz to Margo Sheldon, while Jack McCloskey and Roberta Weiss look on.

Dick Mazza and Bill Hoffner plead with their loves, Martha Noel and Elaine Caras.

The Would-Be Gentleman, presented by the senior class on November 11th and 12th, kept the Royals laughing. It was a rollicking satire on the foolishness of M. Jourdain, who used his money in an attempt to become a gentleman. He hired many masters to teach him the arts, but all he did was make a fool of himself. He could easily be called a "social climber."

About six weeks of preparation went into this play written by Moliere. The scenery and costumes, including wigs, were all made by thespians, apprentices, and a few non-thespian helpers. The make-up was done by them also.

The professional quality obtained in our plays must be credited to Miss Reed's and Miss Weil's true love for the theatre. If it weren't for them, our plays wouldn't be as well-known in the community as they are.

The stage crew members set the stage for production. Here in action are: James Snively, Roger Snyder, Karen Johansen, Joe Elkins, Wendy Sheldon, Alan Christman, Michael Ossar, Tom Cameron, Dennis Bonney, and Ellie March.

JUNIOR PLAY—

At rehearsal Dick Mazza, Marlene Suddard, and Ellen Abrams give Arlene Leddy a last check.

As Arlene Leddy watches in disdain, Dan Litwin orders Gail Williams to kiss the Bible.

Cast

Mrs. Manningham	Ann Harper, Arlene Leddy
Mr. Manningham	Dan Litwin, Roger Snyder
Rough (the detective)	Joe Elkins, Perry Price
Elizabeth (the housekeeper),
Nancy (the maid)	Jo-Ann Gervais, Joanne Harris
Policemen	Sue Mauntel, Gail Williams
Student Directors	William Stuplin, Joe Elkins, Perry Price
	Joe Elkins, Richard Mazza

The story revolves around Mrs. Manningham, a frail and frightened young woman. Her husband Jack Manningham, a sly, polished gentleman, is secretly seeking a brooch containing priceless jewels. These jewels belonged to an elderly woman who Mr. Manningham had killed in the same house that Mrs. Manningham and he are living in now. Mrs. Manningham begins to think she sees and hears strange things. Her husband also finds stolen property in her possession. When Mrs. Manningham's mind is just about ready to break, a kindly gentleman comes calling. The plot thickens as Mrs. Manningham learns that the gentleman is a detective and that he is investigating a murder case. The climax of the play comes when Inspector Rough faces Jack Manningham, the villain of all the thieving and queer happenings, with the facts. Mrs. Manningham finally realizes that she is not going insane and that her husband is to blame for all her unhappiness. The play closes with Mrs. Manningham at peace with herself.

As Roger Snyder calls Arlene Leddy insane, their servant, JoAnne Gervais, looks on in horror.

Better everything to a real nice girl Roger Snyder

"ANGEL STREET"

Roger Snyder as Mr. Manningham pleads with the impudent maid Nancy—Sue Mauntel.

The inspector portrayed by Joe Elkins gives instructions to JoAnne Harris as Elizabeth.

Angel Street, by Patrick Hamilton, was the choice of the Class of 1957 for their Junior Play. It is the melodramatic story of a woman being driven insane by her criminal, sadistic husband. The entire action of the play occurs in a shabby house on Angel Street in London, in 1880.

The play, under the direction of Miss Frieda E. Reed, was professional in quality. Under the guidance of Miss Maizie G. Weil, technical director, and Mike Ossar, stage manager, members of the stage crew produced their usual high standard of work. The ability of the make-up, costume, publicity, and ticket chairmen, and the support and enthusiasm of the class made Angel Street a sparkling success.

Dan Litwin is caught, to the relief of Joe Elkins, Bill Stuplin, Perry Price, and Arlene Leddy.

Part of the hard working crew are Steve Bonney, Charles Lewis, Warren Walsh, Judy Holmes and Joe Tetaro.

The school year of 1955-56 was a successful one for the National Thespians. They presented a choral speaking program in the Christmas assembly and at a Thespian meeting. Cuts from The Barretts of Wimpole Street, The Skin of Our Teeth, and The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife highlighted the Mothers' Group Fashion Show. Another big event was the presentation of The Emperor's New Clothes, the children's play. All these productions were aided by the excellent work of the stage crew and the make-up and costume committees.

Miss Frieda Reed and Miss Maizie Weil gave their time unselfishly to the group.

This year's Varsity Hockey team sparked by Sandy Ralston, Captain, and Loey Lenhard, Most Valuable Player, came through with a record of three wins, three ties, and two defeats. The Royal Sticksters held Lansdowne to a 1-1 tie in a fast-moving game. Though they were downed by Swarthmore 3-2, the girls made a fine showing in spite of the steady downpour. Coach Elizabeth Williams says prospects for next year look good with four returning letter winners.

Though the J.V. squad got off to a bad start, losing to Lower Merion 4-0, they quickly rallied and won the next three games by shutting out their opponents. The girls were downed by Lansdowne but Miss Elizabeth Williams, coach, felt the team worked hardest in that game. Their next two games were easy victories over Yeadon and Norristown. The '55 season closed with the J.V.ettes tying Swarthmore 1-1.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

With seven returning lettermen, the Purple and Gold managed to wind up a fairly impressive season with four wins, three losses, and two ties. Coach Arthur Purcell reported that the hardest fought game was against Lower Merion even though the final score was 33-6, their favor. The season was highlighted by the Annual Thanksgiving Day game with Haverford. The Royals tied the score with a thrilling TD in the last few minutes of play. At the end of the season the team members selected Rich Mustardo and Mike Haywood as co-captains. Rich was also selected Most Valuable Player. Dick Struck was chosen by area coaches and sports-writers as All-Suburban right tackle.

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

Lynch and Gisel lead the Harriers to victory.

The varsity crosses the line in a dramatic finish.

Under the leadership of the new head coach, Mr. Carl Hedstrom, the Harriers finished an undefeated Cross Country season, copping the Suburban A and District I Championship and taking eighth in the State Championship at Penn State College. To start the season off Art Palenschat won the Novice race. Chosen by their teammates for captain of the year and most valuable runner were George Gisel and Dick Haines, respectively. Dick Haines and Art Palenschat are co-holders of the U.D. Cross Country course record, which they broke in the Chester Meet.

The Junior Varsity Cross Country season was as successful as the varsity's. Under the guidance of Mr. John Swartz, the Jayvee Harriers won the Suburban A and District I Championships. In the Districts, the second place team lost to U.D. by 100 points. Wayne Conrad, a junior, won the Districts for Upper Darby. He was also captain for the Districts. John Caras, a junior, and John Lasco, a sophomore, are good prospects for the coming year. Bob Miller was also an asset to the team. To sum up the season, they were undefeated. Almost all of their wins were shutouts.

In the scuffle, Ed Kaloudis protects our goal by kicking the ball away from his opponent.

The Royal Booters, coached by Mr. Albert B. Jackson, and captained by Gerry Burke, had a very successful season, winning nine, losing two, and tying one. They took the Suburban I Championship by defeating Lower Merion, who were the defending champions. On November 15, the Royal Booters did it again. They became Eastern Regional Champions by defeating Pequea Valley 2-1, in a second half rally. Jim Ritchie, one of the few returning varsity players, was elected the Most Valuable Player by his teammates.

The referee has a point but the opponent looks doubtful while Barrie Ray keeps out of the argument.

Charles Turnier and Barrie Ray use teamwork to keep possession of the ball.

 "The stirring fact that springs from the past season is the realization that from this squad will come the fellows who will continue to lead Upper Darby on to many more varsity championships, and make our team one to be feared on the soccer field. We were tied too many times by teams we should have beaten badly, but this fact makes better varsity players. Lower Merion spoiled two J.V. seasons—they won't do it again. This was a J.V. squad of good—maybe great—future athletes," says coach Richard Kromer.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Ritchie racks one up.

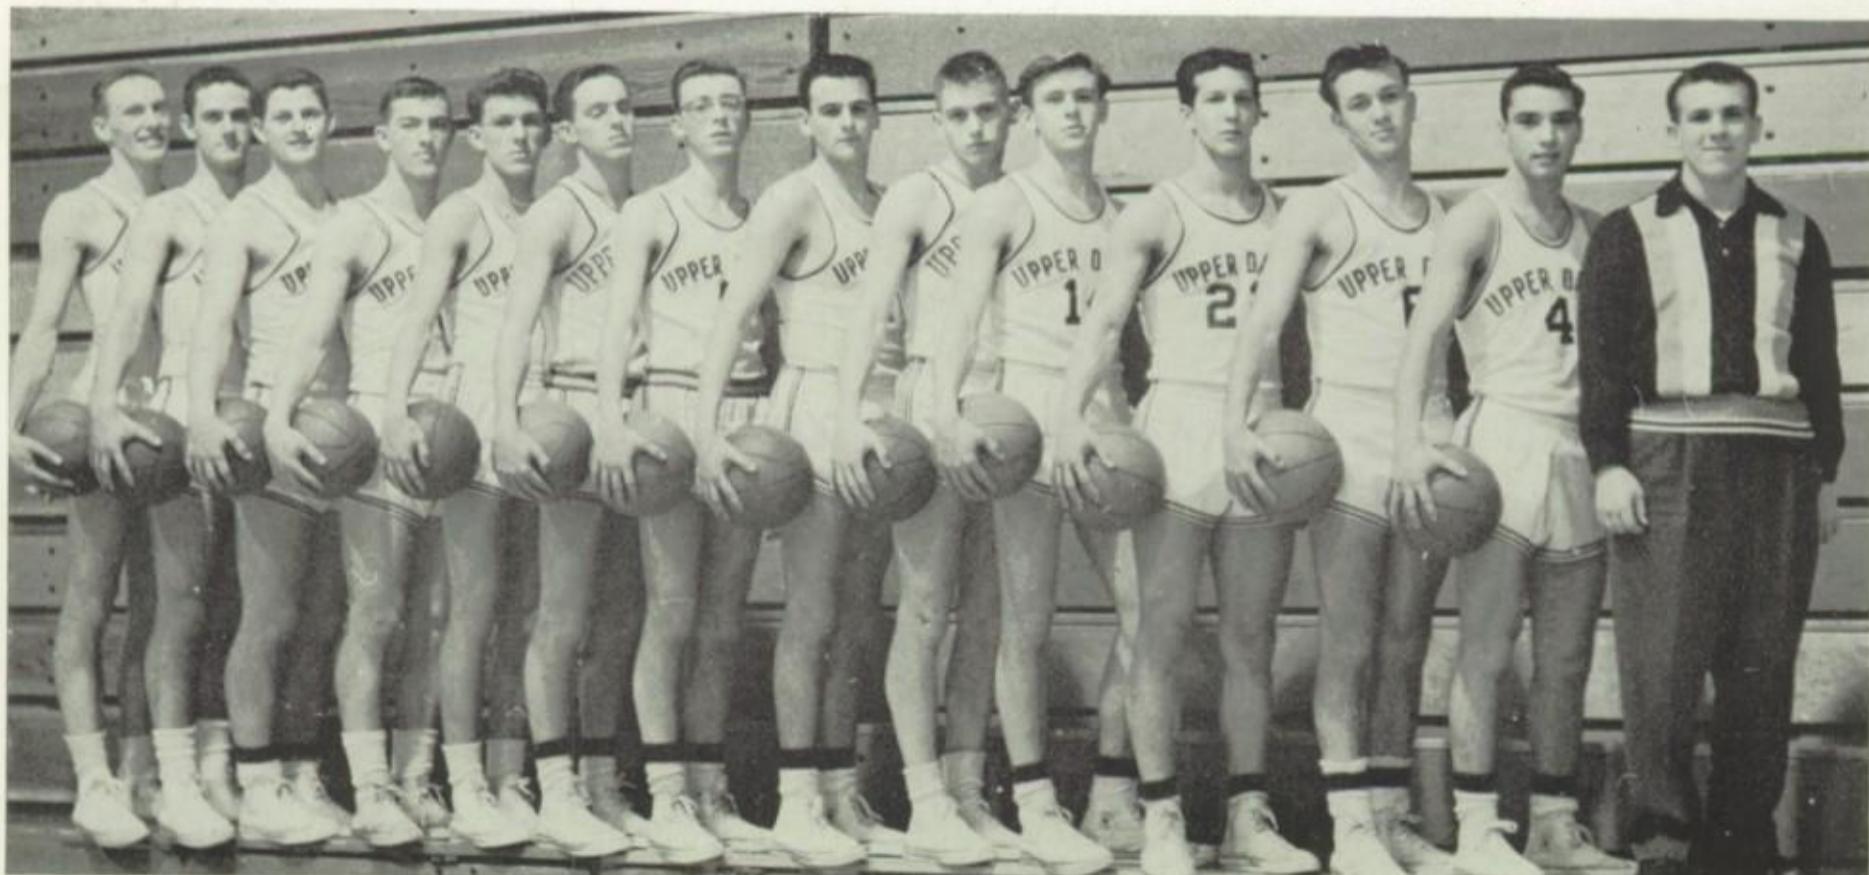

*Red hot is the future
Ride on, Royals!*

U.D.'s varsity basketball team of '56 will long be remembered as one of the best ever to play for our school. Led by the "big Three," McCann, Ritchie, and Struck, the Royals set a record of nineteen wins and two defeats. We will always remember the many exciting moments which passed as Upper Darby led the score, usually by twenty points. The Stamus-men elected East Delco stars Jim Ritchie and Bob McCann as captains at the end of the season. Upper Darby will always be able to recall with pride, the class of 1956's contribution to outstanding basketball achievement.

The Junior Varsity Basketball squad was one of the "surprises" of Upper Darby's winter sport season. With everyone on the team inexperienced, no one had much hope for the team's success. However, the end result showed that out of eighteen games played, thirteen were won and only five were lost. The big moment of the season came when the Royals beat the Chester Clippers by a score of 45 to 38. Coach Hedstrom believes the team to be excellent material for U.D.'s varsity next year.

Upper Darby's Junior Varsity team came through the season with flying colors. The courtsters were the proud winners of eight games out of eight played. Miss Reimann, coach, said, "Prospects for next year are encouraging even though we did receive some good breaks—the girls really hustled." Miss Reimann also said that the J.V.sters' undefeated season could be attributed not only to splendid participation but also to the effort on each girl's part at practice.

U.D.'s Varsity Basketball team, paced by Donna Hill and Lois Lenhard, co-captains, came through with a 6-2 record. Overcoming a very large casualty rate, the girls made a fine showing all season, losing the Radnor game by one basket and the Lower Merion game by one point. All the players agreed the two best games of the '56 season were with Springfield and Swarthmore, for "everyone worked with a little extra effort," said Donna Hill. The season came to a gay finish with a party at manager Franne Farrell's house where Donna Hill was chosen most valuable player.

District I Champ.—First Place

Suburban Champ.—First Place

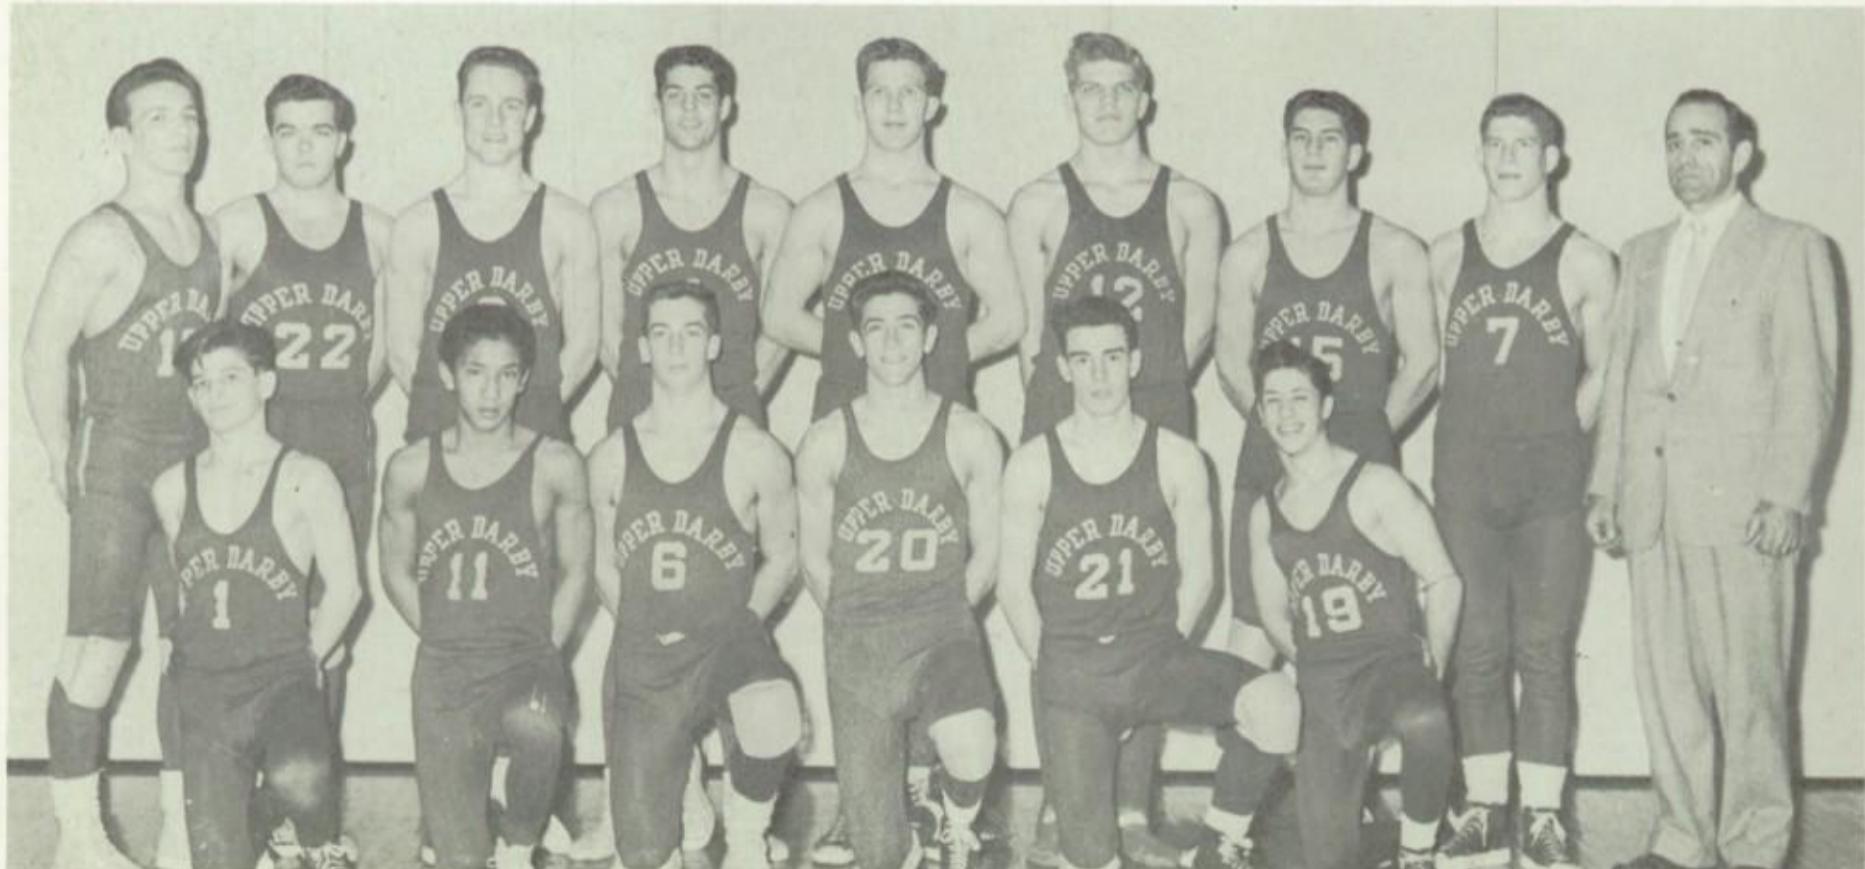

Regional Champ.—Bob Costagliola,
Ronnie Fordham

This year's wrestling team was one of the finest teams Upper Darby ever had. Through hard work and superb coaching U.D. went ahead to win their ten meets, which crowned them Suburban Champions. The grapplers went on to win the Districts, having four district champions: Ron Fordham, Bob Costagliola, Alan Huntsman, who was also selected outstanding wrestler; and Dennis Lee, a district champ for two years. U.D. entered four men in the Regional Championship and sent Bob Costagliola and Ron Fordham to the State finals. The Co-Captains, who spurred the team to victory, were Bill Snyder and Bob Costagliola.

Reverend and Mrs. Dawkins, U.D.'s No. 1 rooters.

The junior varsity wrestlers are being depended upon to carry the load of next year's season. They are expected to take over where our District Champions left off. According to the coach, Peter Bernardino, they show quite a bit of promise. The men they are counting on to carry on are Wellington Lee, Don Lusciano, Bill Hamilton, Bill Stevenson, Dick Osman, Brandle Mason, and Carl Boyd. Even though the J.V. grapplers only had four meets, they won all but one, and in winning they swamped the opposing teams. Upper Darby feels sure that with these promising boys we shall again go on to be District Champions in 1957.

CHEERLEADERS

U.D.'s cheerleading squad, captained by Doris Tubbs and Franne Farrell, did a wonderful job in promoting school spirit and boosting team morale. The girls cheered at football, basketball, and baseball games and also at pep rallies, class assemblies, and the Purple and Gold Tag Night.

Girls are elected to the squad on the basis of smiles, rhythm, pep and cheerleading ability. The squad is capably supervised by Mr. Charles Brooke of the history department.

The game has been won and before the fans leave, the cheerleaders lead them in our Alma Mater.

Nancy West, U.D.'s mascot, flirts as she poses with our co-captains, Doris Tubbs and Franne Farrell.

TRACK

Dick Cahill flings the discus as Coaches Purcell and Jackson look on. Ed Cocco in a thrilling finish in the Norristown meet.

With many returning vets, U.D.'s track outlook for '56 is bright. Dick Kaplan and Ed Cocco will lead the sprinters with help from Larry Sharp and Don Gentner, while Bill Snyder and Tim Jefopoulos will take care of the hurdles.

Tops in the quarter mile are John Bahm, Art Saxon, and George Becker.

Bill Sabatino, Fran Gross, and Wayne Conrad will run the 880, with Dick Haines and Art Palenshat scoring in the mile.

Dick Cahill is expected to handle the shot put and discus, while Wayne Ramar is tops in throwing the javelin.

Cappy Will and Don Gentner are broad jumpers, and Brandle Mason and Joe Trimble are expected to hit the 10½ foot mark in pole vault.

With such a promising squad, there are high hopes for a thinclad title at U.D.

Bill Sabatino out in front in the 880; Saxon, Sabatino, Palenshat, and Bahm, U.D.'s mile relay team; Brandle Mason, one of our excellent pole vaulters.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The bench during a tense moment; Jim Ritchie ready to take a cut.

With three captains, Ritchie, Shiffer, and Sandell, the U.D. sluggers promised to be a team of leaders. Practice began in the gym in early March, and the team moved outdoors as warmer weather approached. The Royals got off to an excellent start, winning their first three games. Terry Oncay and Erve Sandell could be found regularly at the mound along with Dick Struck, Dick Semel, and George Miller. Coach Carson Thompson thinks that this is one of Upper Darby's best rounded teams.

Best of luck friend Kirkpatrick to a swell al

Upper Darby High's 1956 Junior Varsity Baseball team got off to a sluggish start. They hit a stretch of very wet weather and then lost their first game 3-7. The boys rallied quickly though, coming home from the Norristown game with a 13-5 victory under their belts. The J.V. coach, Mr. Joseph Rhile, says that even though it is early in the season the prospects look very good for the rest of this year and for next year's varsity squad.

TENNIS

Kneeling, l. to r.: L. Lenhard, C. Duguid, M. Stevenson, M. Noel, E. Duguid, S. Kruger, C. Armstrong, N. Grady, B. Singleton, manager. Standing: F. McCormick, manager; M. Deere, J. Kaplan, J. Hawkins, J. Schmucker, B. Hart, A. Stazel, S. Ralston, C. McCook, L. Weaver, Mrs. Nielsen, Coach.

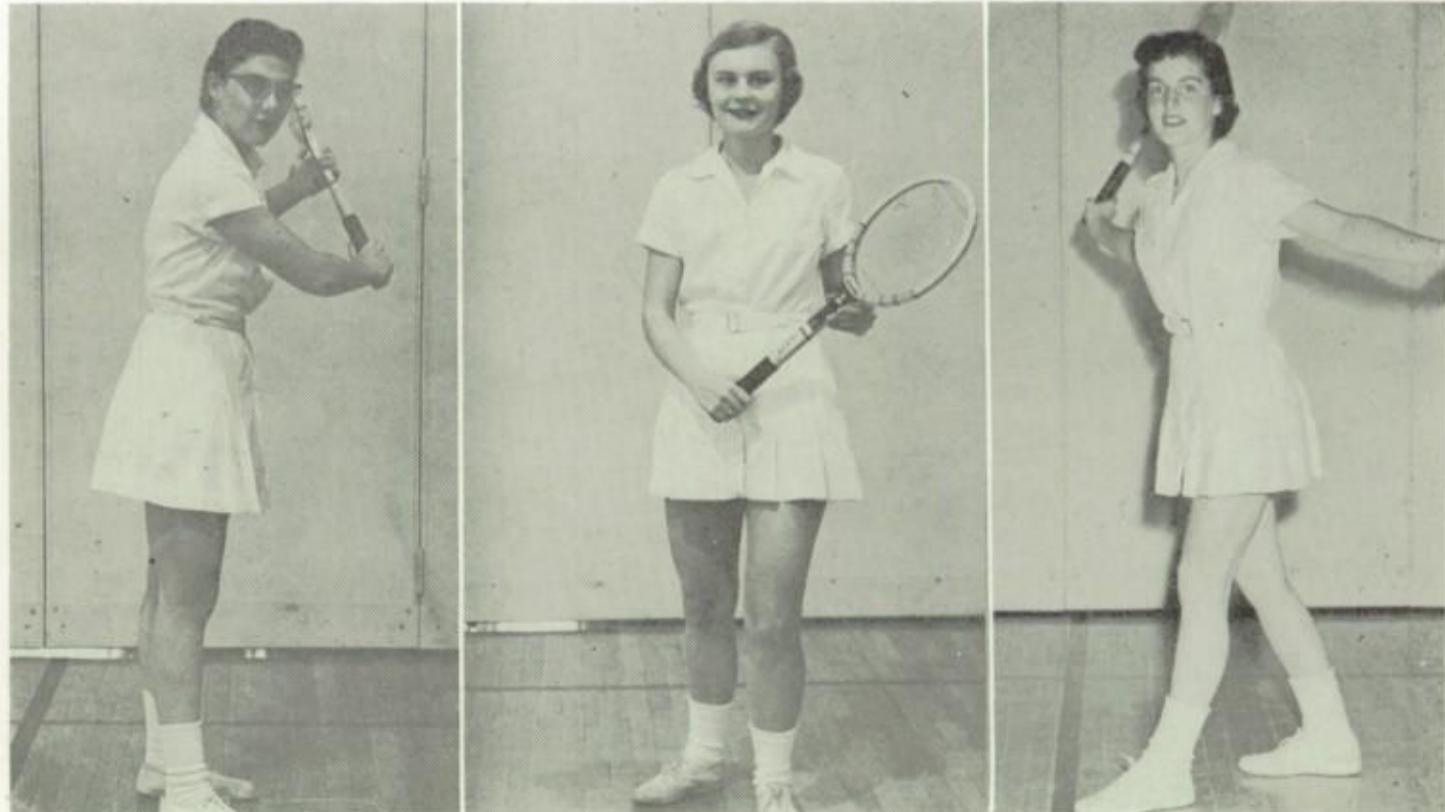

The girls' tennis team, coached for the first time this year by Mrs. Dorothy Nielsen, began practicing early in April. The girls were hindered from the start by inclement weather. The fact that they had to share the courts with the boys made it difficult for them to hold adequate practice. However, the girls will be trying to bring a successful season home to U.D.

The team members elected Eleanor Duguid to serve as captain.

As early as March the boys' tennis squad began practice with running, calisthenics, and rope jumping, as well as serving and volleying in the gym. Coach McKinley Stevens aided many inexperienced boys in the fundamentals of the game in preparation for future teams. He was aided by Mr. Ralph McConnell and Mr. Albert Jackson. Captain Dave Lynch played first singles, while Peter and Paul Harkins, a twin junior combination, played second and third singles. Manager Bob Brown kept all records and took care of other team details.

Paul and Peter Harkins, second and third singles.

Captain Dave Lynch, first singles.

Steve Watchorn and George Daebeler, doubles.

CLASS ADVISOR

MISS JULIA MILLER

Miss Miller, our class advisor, gives instructions in cooking to Bob McCann, Mike Lacktman, Tim Jefopoulos, and Don Hughes.

During Miss Miller's three years as one of the advisors to the class of 1956, she has been a constant "port in the storm." With a quietness and surety that inspired confidence in all of us she went about solving our many problems. On her many trips from the Home Economics department to the Senior Office she always had a cheery hello for all of her many senior friends.

For never ceasing energy on our behalf, and patient understanding at all times we will always remember Miss Julia Miller.

CLASS ADVISOR

MR. ROY WOLFGANG

Mr. Roy Wolfgang has an interview with Mike Haywood about college entrance.

Mr. Roy W. Wolfgang has put in many long hours to insure the success of the Class of 1956. He was one who guided us through our three years "on the hill." Mr. Wolfgang was always ready to lend a helping hand to us whenever any emergency arose. From our Sophomore Magazine Campaign to our Senior Play, Mr. Wolfgang's calm quiet guidance and continuing wisdom have been the reason for the class' financial success. Mr. Wolfgang will be remembered, by our class, as a helpful and inspirational leader.

CLASS OFFICERS

L. to r.: Phyllis Dietrich, historian; Bob DeStefano, treasurer; Richard Kaplan, president; Timothy Jefopoulos, vice president; Ann Carter, secretary.

Bob DeStefano, Treasurer; Phyllis Dietrich, Historian; Dick Kaplan, President; Ann Carter, Secretary; Tim Jefopoulos, Vice President.

Our class officers not only lead the Class of 1956 well, but they are leaders in other activities as well. Dick Kaplan, our president, has distinguished himself in football and track, the Hi-Y, student council, on the Hi-Q team, and in a host of other activities. Tim Jefopoulos, vice president, has likewise seen service in football, track, and Hi-Y. Ann Carter, diminutive secretary, has served well on the Acorn, in hockey and swimming, in numerous clubs and committees. Bob DeStefano, treasurer, participated in football and baseball, as well as in music and committee activities. Phyllis Dietrich, class historian, has been most active in our dramatics and in club and committee work. These busy people have found ample time, however, to perform their class duties well.

CLASS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

With the beginning of the school year the 1956 executive committee went to work, meeting every Monday morning before school. They met with their class officers and advisors to discuss the matters pertinent to their class.

Much of the credit for the seniors' successful dances and play, The Would Be Gentleman, belonged to the hard working executive committee members who headed most of the minor committees necessary to the promotion of class productions.

Besides the duties mentioned above, this committee also helped the Mothers' Group complete the preparations for the party given the seniors at the end of the year. On Memorial Day they placed wreaths on the plaques at the front entrance. One of their most outstanding events of the year was the entertaining of Foreign Exchange Students from nearby schools. Their last spurt of work for the class of '56 was in trying to make the Senior Final an occasion to be remembered by all that attended.

Dear Ann,

To a really wonderful girl and I really mean it. Working with you in children's play was tons of fun. I hope in our senior year that we will go to Indiana together. Always stay so sweet and kindly as you are now & you will go far. Lots of happiness and good luck.

Love

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We are very happy to acknowledge our indebtedness to Mr. Francis Luedcke of Luedcke Photography; Mr. Melvin Subers of Lyon & Armor, Inc., Printers; and Mr. Robert Kamp of R-K Engraving for their valuable help in the publishing of the 1956 OAK. Each of them was always willing to do far more than the actual contract called for in helping us to produce a fine book.

Anne
The greatest of luck
may the greatest of kids

Dear Ann,
It's been fun
being with you in Dramatics I. I hope you have a lot of luck
in Dramatics II with Sally I won't be with you in Dram. II.
Good luck, happiness,
success and health
Be frequent guests of yours & remember me
and dear old Shespius (I hope you get in next year) I'll see you next year as a junior (or as it'll be one to you this summer) I'll send it over, Marlene Juddard

Dear Ann,
